OFFICIAL REPORTS ARE UNAVAILABLE

Lansing Refrains From Expressing Opinion on Ancona Sinking

DISCUSS INCIDENT

Conflicting Reports Concerning Colors Raised By Submarine Attract Much Attention

CAPTAIN CONFIRMS REPORT

ROME, Nov. 11.—via Paris, Nov. 11.—Only 225 pasengers and crew of the Steamer Ancona were saved out of a total of 42 on board says a despatch from Tunis to the Corriere della Sera.

Previous despatches placed the number of passengers on the Ancona at 482 and the crew has been estimated at from 60 to 160.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Official reports describing exactly how the Italian Liner Ancona was destroyed still were unavailable today and in consequence Secretary Lansing refrained from expressing any opinion as to the attitude of the United States. Press reports indicating that the Ancona was given warning, but that many passengers were lost as a result of shots fired by the attacking submarine after the liner came to a halt, were read here with grave interest. High officials of the American government hold that when heeding warning a belligerent merchantman is entitled to sufficient time to place non-combatants in a place of safety and that the fact that a vessel previously attempted to escape, does not invalidate that right.

Discuss Incident Informally.

Officials today limited themselves to informal discussion of the incident taking the position that nothing of an official nature could be given out until detailed reports are received from Ambassador Thomas Nelson Page at Rome or from Consuls in Italy and North Africa, who have been instructed to obtain affidavits from survivors.

So far it has been impossible to ascertain definitely the number of American citizens lost.

Conflicting reports concerning the colors raised by the submarine which attacked the Ancona attracted much attention today. If one report—that the submarine flew a German flag—is confirmed, officials said this would be considered as an act of war sufficient to serve notice that Italy and Germany were in a state of war. There never has been any declaration of war between the two countries so far as the state department is advised and the custom has been in cases of this kind to await some overt act as an evidence of the state of hostilities.

Should it develop that the submarine was manend by a German naval force and flew a German flag, it is considered certain that the question wil be made the subject of immediate diplomatic corespondence by the United States with the German foreign office.

Confirms Previous Reports.

Paris, Nov. 11.—A despatch to the Havas Agency from Tunis says:

The captain of the Ancona, who arrived here today confirmed previous reports that the hostile submarine fired upon his vesel while her boats were filled with passengers and ready to be lowered.

Shells struck the boats killing or wounding many passengers, the captain said, and boats also were struck by projectiles after they were in the water.

The captain declared no signal was given by the submarine, except that a shot was fired when the submarine was about five miles distant. The steamer immediately stopped. The last gun shots were fired at a distance of about 300 yards, several of the boats pulled close to the submarine, the captain said, but were warned off, with insulting cries.

GOV. DUNNE SPEAKS AT BANQUET IN DAVENPORT

ILLINOIS EXECUTIVE URGES MORE WATER TRANSPORTATION

Inspects Waterway Terminal Recently Completed by Davenport, Moline and Rock Island—States Waterway Transportation Is Cheaper.

Davenport, Ia., Nov. 11.—Gov. Edward F. Dunne of Illinois spoke in favor of waterways tonight at a banquet given by the Greater Davenport committee. During the day the governor inspected the waterway terminal recently completed by Davenport, Moline and Rock Island. In urging more water transportation, Gov. Dunne said:

"Waterway transportation has been largely retarded in the past by the opposition of the railroad interests and by those interests conspiring and monopolizing the most suitable waterway terminals. A time has come in the transportation prolem of the nation when in my judgment the opposition of the railroads is being weakened or withdrawn. The railroads, I believe, even in the judgment of their owners, are not adequate to cope with the full transportation of all commodities. The more bulky and cheaper comodities cannot be handled by the railroads to their entire satisfaction or to the satisfaction of the public. There is room for waterway transportation without cutting into the most profitable railroad transportation. This situation I believe is accentuated and intensified in the Mississippi val particularly by the opening of the Panama canal.

"Since the opening of the Panama canal it has been found by the manufacturers in the state of Illinois and surrounding staes that it is cheaper and more satisfactory to ship certain classes of merchandise to the eastern seaboard and thence by steamer to the Pacific coast than to snip it direct by rail.

"From the city of Chicago to New Orleans there exists a navigable seven-foot waterway of 1400 miles, except for a stretch of 65 miles between Lockport and Utica, Ill. Over that 65 miles the Illinois river and its tributary, the Des Plaines river, which runs through Lockport and Joliet, there is a rocky ledge with a declivity of 100 feet, which makes it impassible even for rowboats. After eight years of effort it now seems that work on the opening of this barrier will soon be authorized.

"The opening of this waterway will be of incomparable value to the state of Illinois and to all the states bordering on the Missossippi river. It will be of particular value to the people of Davenport, Rock Island and Moline. Once this waterway is open, river commerce between Chicago and New Orleans will develop enormously and commerce from the Mississippi river through the Hennepin and Illinois waterways to the great lakes will be tremendously accelerated."

"Did you observe anything unusual?" asked the state's attorney.

"His voice was husky and he asked how he and I stood," responded the witness.

MELLEN TELLS OF T. R.'S ASSURANCE

Testifies Regarding Offer to Buy New Haven Steamship Lines

REJECTED PROPOSITION

Witness Asserts Colonel Stated Road Need Not Fear His Administration If it RefusedOffer

PROVES HOSTILE WITNESS

NEW YORK, Nov. 11—Charles S. Mellen, testifying today at the trial of eleven former New York, New Haven & Hartford railroad directors charged with violating the Sherman anti-trust law, told of having been given assurance by former President Theodore Roosevelt that the New Haven need have no fear of federal action during Roosevelt's administration if it rejected a proposition to dispose of its steamship properties to Charles W. Morse.

Adds Statement.

Mr. Mellen gave similar testimony at the inquiry into New Haven affairs by the inter-state commerce commission but to his former testimony he today added the statement that Mr. Roosevelt felt it would be inimical to public interest for Morse to consummate his purpose of getting control of Atlantic coast-wise shipping lines thru the acquisition of the New Haven properties.

Mr. Mellen testified that despite the recommendation of Mr. Roosevelt, he (Mellen) had recommended the sale of the properties to Morse, but that the directors, in pursuance of their alleged purpose to maintain a monopoly, refused to act on Mellen's suggestion.

The government today laid emphasis on a portion of Mr. Roosevelt's conversation in which he was quoted by the witness as saying:

"I am no lawyer and I can promise you no immunity if you violate the law."

According to Mellen's testimony Morse in 1907 offered to buy the New Haven steamship lines for $20,000,000. This, Mellen said, would have ben at a profit of $14,000,000, and he thought the New Haven should take advantage of the offer, particularly since the question was being agitated in congress of requiring railroads to divorce themselves from the ownership of steamship lines. He said he went to Washington to consult with Roosevelt and members of the inter-state commerce commission regarding the transaction and that the president, after declining to promise immunity said, according to Mellen:

"But, if you don't sell, you'll have no end of trouble with my administration".

The government maintains that the assurance given by President Roosevelt was meant to apply solely to the proposed legislation and not to acts of the New Haven amenable to the Sherman law.

Proves a Hostile Witness.

Mr. Mellen again proved a hostile witness today, in the opinion of government counsel. Attorney Batts complained that he was unable to elicit satisfactory testimony from the witness save in instances where proof could be obtained from other sources. The case in point had to do with the Joy Steamship company which the government charges was secretly operated by the New Haven for the purpose of driving the Enterprise Line out of business. Mr. Mellen denied that a semblance of competition was kept up between the Joy Line and the New Haven, but admitted that the United States Transportation company, another New Haven concern, was used to meet the Enterprise competition. An attempt by the government to show that the United States company also was secretly competing was hampered by Mr. Mellen's failure of memory.

London, Nov. 11.—During the course of a discussion today in the house of commons on the suspension of the Globe newspaper James Myles Hogge, member for East Edinburg declared his belief that the statement that Lord Kitchener had resigned was true and that the seizure of the paper because of the publication of the statement was not justified.

Premier Asquith, who immediately replied, said that Mr. Hogge accused him of a deliberate and inexcusable falsehood and to make the matter quite clear, he declared:

"Earl Kitchener never tendered his resignation either to the king or myself, the only two persons to whom he could have tendered it. Earl Kitchener never breathed a word of resignation to either."

The decision to send Lord Kitchener to the Near East, the premier added, was taken by the cabinet on Thursday, Nov. 4th. Serious information which led the government to take the decision was brought to their knowledge for the first time on Wednesday. In the interests of public life he protested against the charges that the king was being directed against the head of the government as likely, if believed, to do incalculable harm to the country thruout the world. He repudiated the charge that the Globe had been singled out for special treatment.

TENTATIVELY ACCEPT TWO MEN AS JURORS TO TRY HALPIN

TEUTONS CONTINUE ADVANCE IN SERBIA

Reports, However, Do Not Record the Capture of Any Town

TAKE 4,000 PRISONERS

French Did Not Re-occupy, But Simply Made a Cavalry Raid Into Town of Veles

LAND NEW BRITISH DIVISION

LONDON, Nov. 11.—There has been no material change in the last twenty four hours in the situation on any of the battle fronts. In Serbia the Austro-Germans claim to be advancing along the line west of Nish. They captured another 4,000 prisoners which the Serbians say, like those captured previously, were largely Macedonian troops who surrendered.

The official reports of the invaders, however, do not record the capture of any town.

Face Invaders in Mountains.

The Serbians are now facing the invaders in the mountains which have proved a protection to them in their previous wars and it is believed their natural strongholds will enable them to make the advance of the Austro-Germans and Bulgarians a matter of some difficulty. It also is thought probable that the opposition the Austrians are meeting in their efforts to drive back the Montenegrins is delaying Field Marshal Von Mackensen's army, for the right wing must be free from this menace before they proceed with their drive.

The news from the southern part of the country is conflicting in many respects. It is now known that the French did not re-occupy but simply made a cavalry raid into the town of Veles, destroying the Bulgarian ammunition stores. The French however are advancing on the west side of the Vardar river and at the same time are repelling Bulgarian attacks on Krivolak and endeavoring to form a junction with the Serbians who are fighting in the Babuna Pass. A new British division having landed, the force, which is to be under the command of General Sir Charles Carmichael Munro, is spreading out to Strumitsa where encounters with Bulgarian patrols are reported.

Expect Further Development.

With the arrival of Field Marshal Kitchener who should soon be on the scene, a further development in the campaign is expected and it is possible that the Gallipoli army will become more active.

So long as the Serbian army remains intact, it is felt in military circles here that there is a good chance to turn the tables on the Germans and their allies. The Teutons, the military observers say, can hardly send further reinforcements for the Near East venture, their line against Russia having grown dangerously thin, as evinced by the Russian successes both in the north and the south.

The Germans admit they withdrew troops from ground west of Riga, which they gained only a few weeks ago at considerable sacrifice and that the Russian fleet in the Gulf of Riga is supporting the Russian army. By their recent gains the Russians have established a connection between their forces on the Gulf of Riga by way of Kemmern and Lake Babit to Olai, which is half way between Riga and Mitau.

As the result of activity of hostile submarines, freight rates between Cardic and the Mediterranean Sea continue to increase. A record was established today when a rate of fifty shilling was quoted for Port Said.

GREENFIELD TUITION QUESTION SETTLED BY JUDGE BURTON

In the district court at Carlinville Wednesday Judge Burton handed down a decision in the case of the Board of Education against the directors of a school district in Barr township, Macoupin county. The case came about because of refusal on the part of the school directors to pay tuition for eight or nine pupils who attended the Greenfield high school during the term 1914-15. The pupils attended the high school with the consent of their parents and were charged the rate of tuition prevailing at the time. The directors refused payment on the ground that the consent of the school directors of the district must be secured. Judge Burton found for the defendants on the ground that the consent of the directors was necessary before they could be compelled to pay the tuition. The case probably will be appealed to the appelate court. The result will be followed with great interest as it is a question vital to both the school boards, school directors and patrons thruout the state.

The Carlinville Democrat has the following caustic comment on the condition of Jacksonville's street paving, and alas, it is too true:

"We see the city of Jacksonville has been passing speed ordinances. We can not understand why the city of colleges finds it necessary to pass such a measure as we never found a street in Jacksonville on which an auto could travel over ten miles an hour without wrecking the machine."

State Journal Grows Old.

Here's to the Illinois State Journal. That stalwart newspaper has recently celebrated its eighty-fourth birthday, and judging from its past and present, the future holds great prospects for it. The State Journal is a well edited, well managed paper. It has all thru the years been unswerving in loyalty to the Republican party and is today one of the most influential newspapers in the state. To say that a paper is well managed and well edited practically sums up the commendation which may be given, and in the case of the State Journal, the statement is not an exaggeration.

No Welcome for English Immigrants.

According to dispatches, immigrants from England of military age who arrive in Canada are not given a cordial welcome there. In fact, the officials have been giving gruelling examinations to late arrivals and they have been subjected to some severe criticism as well. The Canadians seem to feel that men of military age who come from England now are displaying a most lamentable lack of patriotism and are seemingly leaving the mother country not only to escape army service but with an eye for the jobs left vacant in Canada by brave soldiers who have gone to the front.

Something of this same spirit was manifested in England the other day when the crew of a ship declined to discharge their duties unless passage was refused to a company of young Irishmen who were staring for America, evidently because of the fear of conscription. In the streets the men on the way to the docks had been jeered and taunted by the populace but without effect. When the members of the crew heard this they quickly solved the matter by declaring their unwillingness to aid in transportation of men evidently recreant to patriotism.

What Y. M. C. A. Means.

At Galesburg the other day Roy S. Landon, boys' secretary of the Y. M. C. A., in addressing the Rotary club, answered the question, "What is the Y. M. C. A.?" in a very forceful way. He said, "The Y. M. C. A. is a high grade, low cost young men's club, Christian but not sectarian. It helps young men not only to help themselves but to help the other fellow. It is a place for a young man to find friends and to make himself a friend to the man who needs friends. Its fellowship, club rooms, gymnasium, baths, swimming pool, classes and all other practical advantages are open to all young men of all faiths or of no faith. When you join the Y. M. C. A. you join a world-wide organization. It is not an experiment but is a survivor of many experiments. When you join the Y. M. C. A. you join a world-wide brotherhood, for the membership extends over fifty countries." The language used by Mr. Landon brings to attention in a forceful way how important is the work which the Y. M. C. A. attempts and does, and it is fortunate, indeed, for Jacksonville that the local association has in these latter weeks thru the interest of citizens taken on new life and is thus in a condition to be the force for good in the community which it should. The campaign for funds for the association was successful and made the financial affairs certain. The campaign for members was equally successful and if anything was the more important of the two campaigns, for an association without an interest and active membership has no good place in the community and becomes an institution without an influence. The Jacksonville Y. M. C. A. is doing a good work today and there is every reason to believe that under the present management that it will grow in usefulness.

Taft Declares for Root.

Former President William Howard Taft in an interview in Chicago Wednesday came out unequivocally for Elihu Root for the presidency. Mr. Taft said that in his opinion Mr. Root comes more nearly measuring up to presidential qualifications than does any other American at this time. The former president bases this opinion upon his high regard for Mr. Root's experience in governmental affairs and his broad statesmanship. When it comes to a discussion of the qualifications and ability of Mr. Root there can be no argument. As to his availability for nomination and the "good politics" of such a plan is a different question. In some quarters the defeat of the proposed new constitution for New York by a majority of 400,000 is considered an evidence of Mr. Root's waning strength as a popularity. Others consider that it was only Mr. Root's influence that mustered for the proposed new constiution the votes that it did receive, and say that thousands of voters who were against the proposition have the very highest estimate of Mr. Root's ability.

Mr. Root is seventy years of age. He is a resident of the east and has, notwithstanding the progressive ideas he enunciated in connection with the New York constitutional convention, been rated as a reactionary in politics. He is a man of wealth, of aristocratic lineage, and cannot be said to have been as close to the people as have some other leaders. Justly or unjustly he has gained the reputation of unfriendliness to anti-liquor movements.

The questions the Republicans will have to decide in making their nominations include the location of the candidate, his record upon great public questions, how the candidacy will likely be viewed by the element in the party which left the convention in 1912—as well as the qualifications of the candidate. Mr. Root, while certainly a man fully able to measure up to presidential qualifications, may not when the time comes be the man who will appeal to the party as the candidate most likely to lead the party to success. It is all right to talk about the ease with which the Republicans will have the victory in the next national election, and the statement sounds well as a matter of encouragement, but the fact remains that while there is every reason now to expect success, that good clear-headed political management will be necessary to achieve the desired end.

Coons have returned to their home there after a visit of two weeks with their daughter Madge, at Shreveport, La., and announce the engagement of Miss Madge to Herman J. Kolde, of Shreveport. Had Serious Fall.

Dr. J. B. Perkins and family were called to the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. S. Colputs, parents of Mrs. Perkins, at Philadelphia, Cass county, Friday by a message that her father, who is nearly 78 years old, had fallen out of the barn loft and was badly hurt. Arriving there, they found that while the old gentleman had been badly shaken up, there were no bones broken and apaprently no injuries of a serious nature. His escape is considered miraculous as he fell quite a distance. They returned home Saturday and Dr. Perkins went over to see him again Monday and found him getting along very well.

For Teacher's Pension.

Mrs. Horace Foltz, of Fowler, who with her husband taught in our schools over twenty-five years ago, has been here this week for the purpose of securing a certified record of her service here in order to apply for a teacher's pension. She has found much pleasure meeting many of her old pupils and other citizens she knew, and tells us that Franklin has improved wonderfully since they left here. Prof. Foltz passed away about six years ago.—Franklin Times.

Rippling Rhymes
By WALT MASON

WORRYING

Disasters never leave us, there's always something grievous that we can worry o'er; there's something going balky, there's always something rocky, to justify a roar. The parlor door is squeaking, the kitchen roof is leaking, there's trouble with the range; the cow is somewhere straying, the hen has ceased her laying, the dog has got the mange. There's always something trying, there's cause for tears and sighing, if your'e that way inclined, if you are fond of weeping, if you are ever keeping a sore spot on your mind. If you are always searching for Worry, where she's perching, you'll find her, every trip; she will not try to lose you, she'll badger and abuse you until you lose your grip. But if you have decided that grief should be derided and chivied from your door, the little daily troubles will seem as thin as bubbles—too small to make you sore. When there's an all-wool sorrow, small comfort can we borrow from optimistic sharps, who say that woes don't matter, and bore us with their chatter, and twang their sunshine harps. But we can learn to laugh at the little griefs and chaff at the triffling sores and smarts; our faith on goodness pinning, let's face the old world grinning, and carry cheerful hearts.

"THE GIRL OF TOMORROW" AT THE GRAND.

Trust to the authors, Howard-Stothart and Noel for the catchiest of music and acme of novelty in the successes that they regularly give to the stage, another of their pleasing musical offering, "The Girl of Tomorrow," full of melody, and splendid numer which is coming to the Grand tonight.

The play is a bright, sparkling concoction of the very best there is in two hours of magic, mirth and melody and the balance of the time devoted to the unfolding of a pretty sentimental story. There is an excellent cast, lots of pretty girls who are good singers and dancers and a gingery lot of chorus men that get their work over in manly style. The scenery is correct of the location and the transformation scenes are bewildering. The costumes are a work of trt. There are several musical numbers that make the head nod and the foot tap, among them, "Pass the Contribution Box," "Some of These Nights," "Neutral Jag" and "Bachelor Bear."

"The Sins of the Mothers"

A Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Feature in Five Parts, with

Anita Stewart and Earl Williams

Directed by Ralph W. Ince.

The New York Evening Sun held a scenario competition. One thousand dollars were offered for the most original and dramatic plot. Manuscripts poured in—four thousand of them. They came from all parts of the world.

The judges were John Bunny and Maurice Costello of the Vitagraph Company; Don Marquis and Errol Hart of the Evening Sun, and Edwin M. LaRoche of the Motion Picture Story Magazine, who presided. These men know motion pictures. They know scenarios. When they read them they see exactly how they will look on the screen.

From the four thousand manuscripts they selected one. This was "The Sins of the Mothers." It was written by Elaine Sterne—an American.

"The Sins of the Mothers" is a story of gambling. The heroine is a beautiful girl. She loves cards. She loves races. She loves roulette. She loves all games of chance. She loves them with a passion that is a mania.

You know how the drug habit can grip a man, or the liquor habit: You know to what lengths it will lead him. This girl inherits a similar craving—a craving for gambling. It is born in her. Her mother before had the gambler's instinct. She secretly kept a gambling house.

You see this girl returning from a convent where her mother sent her as a child. You see her about to enter society.

She is loved by a strong man. Her future is before her. She is taught to play cards. You se her heritage assert itself. You see it grip and hold her in its meshes. She can't resist it.

How it lures her! First to the bridge tables of fahionable society—then to the races—and finally to the notorious gambling hell formerly kept by her mother!

You see the great race track scene. You know how Vitagraph can stage a scene like this.

You see the inside of the gambling house,—the gamesters. You see the raid by her husband who has become District Attorney. He doesn't know she is there. You see what happens.

All these things appear before you on the screen in Vitagraph reality.

This is the third of the Vitagraph Blue Ribbon Features. In every detail it is up to the Blue Ribbon standard.

Chicago, Nov 11—The long awaited report which is expected to contribute very substantially to the world's knowledge of the problems of smoke abatement and electrification of railway terminals will be presented to the Chicago Association of Commerce at its municipal dinner to the city officials tonight. On the committee are representatives of the railroads, the Association of Commerce and thec ity. The engineering expert in charge is W. F. M. Goss, dean of the school of engineering at the University of Illinois. Up to now no exhaustive study had been made of the smoke abatement laws and their practical workings, or of the problems, costs and efficiency of electric power to supplant steam power in the adjoining big railway terminals.

George W. Van Zandt celebrated his 81st birthday Thursday. Mr. Van Zandt resides at 782 East College avenue. He was born in Georgetown, Ky., Nov. 11, 1834. His parents moved to this city when he was one year old and this has been his home since. Mr. Van Zandt enlisted in Company G, First Missouri cavalry, and served until the close of the war. He was 28 years of age at the time of enlistment.

It has been Mr. Van Zant's intention to give a dinner to members of Company G, and relatives but illness of a relativt prevented. Instead he and Mrs. Van Zandt went to the home of their daughter, Mrs. J. H. Campbell, 1127 South Clay avenue, where the day was spent very pleasantly with relatives and friends. During the day he received a number of post cards and greetings from friends and two big birthday cakes from relatives. His son, Clifford Van Zandt of Chicago sent him two good old "jimmy" pipes and he also received a large amount of smoking tobacco.

Mr. Van Zandt also has in his possession a newspaper printed in Vicksburg at the time of the capture of the city by Grant. The paper is printed on wallpaper, which was the only material available at the time of the seige.

Despite his years Mr. Van Zandt is in excellent health and expects to see many more birthdays. He has three children living, Mrs. Campbell of this city, Mrs. Nellie Van Zandt Summers of Grinnell, Iowa, and Clifford Van Zandt of Chicago.

Mr. Moore Surprised by Long Time Friends.

Recently George W. Moore, long a resident of Morgan county became a citizen of Jacksonville. A number of his war time comrades felt that his coming to the city was too important an event to pass unnoticed and so they planned a sort of surprise house warming for him. Last night members of Mr. Moore's company of the First Missouri cavalry and other veterans with their wives met at the Moore home on West State street, where though unexpected by their host, they were given a most cordial welcome. Several hours were spent in a delightful social way and Mr. Moore was made to feel that his long time friends were really glad that he could now be classed as a Jacksonville citizen and their neighbor.

Will Observe Mrs. Wood's Birthday.

Guests and members of Urania lodge No. 243, I. O. O. F., to the number of three hundred gathered at Odd Fellows' hall Thursday night for the fourteenth annual banquet and entertainment of the lodge and after listening to a program which kept each keely interested, gave attention to a feast which was well served and sumptuous. Carl H. Weber acted as chairman and made the address of welcome. The Rev. M. L. Pontius, pastor of Central Christian church, was the speaker of the evening, taking as his subject "Odd Fellowship as a Character Builder." The opening prayer was given by the Rev. H. A. Sherman.

Homer Reid gave a vocal solo after which there was music by the High School trio, Harold Dunlap, Bryon Carpenter and Earl Briscoe, accompanied by Miss Helen Bennett. Miss Helen Harney gave a reading and next on the program were informal talks from Urania lodge members, including Judge William E. Thomson, State's Attorney Robert Tilton and Frank J. Heinl, past grand patriarch of Illinois. A musical novelty feature by the Clayton sisters, now at the Grand, was among the more pleasing events on the program. More than a score of applications for membership were received by the secretary at the close of the meeting.

ANOTHER COAL STRIKE THREATENED INDUSTRIAL AFFAIRS

Miners Have Already Formulated Their Demands for New Agreement—Investigations Made by the Government.

Washington, Nov. 11—Will the Wilson administration be called on this winter to settle an anthracite coal strike? As the situation appears to be shaping, there is a probability that the President may find himself confronted with a condition of acute industrial warfare, the Pennsylvania coal operators on the one side, the United Mine Workers on the other, and the general public shivering in between.

On March 31 next, the four-year agreement between the miners and the operators will expire automatically. The miners have already formulated their demands for a new agreement. According to a summary published these demands include recognition of the Union, an eight-hour day, a twenty per cent increase in wages, a more speedy, simplified and satisfactory method of settling disputes, a two- year agreement prohibiting contract miners from having more than one working place, a 2240 pound ton, payment for refuse cleaned from coal, and other more technical suggestions.

The principal demands are similar to those made in 1903, 1906, 19 1909 and 1912. It is stated on good authority that, aside from certain specified matters relating to the collection of union dues, the checking of work and docking of wages, there have been no concessions to the demands of the miners except wage advances and various changes in the method of settling disputes.

The operators have persistently refused to recognize the union. Since 1903, hours of labor have remained the same, and neither the 2240 or 2000 pound ton has been established. It is generally believed here that the operators will refuse to meet the demands which the miners have formulated, and among labor leaders there is frank belief that a strike is immiment. Men in Washington intimately versed in the anthracite situation are of the opinion that the President will be practically forced to use his good offices to appoint a commission of arbitration to which will be consigned the task of settling the differences between the two parties.

Naturally the main interest of the general public is whether the strike will tend to increase the price of coal. This question can be answered in the affirmative, judging from the experience of the past. The public, furthermore, is interested in knowing on whom to place the blame for an increase in the cost of furnace fuel.

Judging from the past again, the operators and the wholesalers are the greatest beneficiaries from any wage increase. The retailers in general do not profit excessively. The miners, of course, receive a slight increase; but, as shown by the Federal Bureau of Labor Statistics in a report on the wage agreement three years ago, the profits of the operators were disproportionately higher than was warranted by the increase in wages.

A summary of this investigation by the government, which was ordered by congress, shows, among other things, the following facts:

1. That the average increase in wholesale prices amounted to 25.82 cents per ton, the coal companies receiving in 1912 a total of $13,450,000 more than they would have received for the same tonnage at the prices previously existing.

2. That the mine workers received an advance in wages amounting to 9 cents per ton, or 5.6 per cent, the total amount of their benefits being $4,000,000.

Some Topics of the Farm

Livestock conditions are not very satisfactory just at present from a feeding standpoint—that is, especially for butcher stock. Probably because of the great run of grass fed cattle to the livestock markets prices have gone down sharply in the past few weeks, and there has been little encouragement for farmers or stockmen to ship butcher stuff. On the markets it has taken an extra fine cow to sell at more than 6c. John Staff, buyer of the Jacksonville Packing company, said yesterday that he had recently purchased good quality butcher stock on the Chicago market at very low prices.

As a result of this condition a number of local stockmen are puzzled as to just the best plan to follow with stock they have on hand, which they expected to put on the market just as soon as pasturage ceased to furnish enough feed. Some of these men, for example, purchased heifer stock early in the spring at prices ranging from $6.25 to $6.40 per hundred and now they do not like the possibility of selling at a $5.50 price. Within a short time if they keep this stock it will be necessary to feed some corn and hay with the expectation of selling the cattle early in the year. This means, of course, that they must take the chance of an increase in price. Under normal conditions such an increase is pretty certain to happen in January or February, but with livestock markets just as with grain, there is always a chance of the unexpected happening.

Another reason why some of the farmers regret that they will be practically forced to keep stock until January which they expected to sell this month, is the fact that when they begin feeding corn that it will be necessary to have hogs following the cattle if they expect to make any fair return above the cost of the feeding. The prevalence of cholera in the county makes this somewhat hazardous. For this reason hogs known to be immune are commanding quite a little higher price than is justified by the market range of prices. This condition which confronts the farmers, many of them claim is simply in line with others they must meet, and one of them recently recalled the statement made some years ago by one of the largest stockmen and farmers the county has ever known. Since then he has gone into other business, and when he left the farm he said to a friend, "This farming and stockraising business is too much of a gamble for me. I was born a gambler—that is, I have always been ready for a chance, but I can't stand this thing of taking a chance and then not knowing for a year whether I was right or wrong."

Prince Coates who resides in Lynnville precinct is well fixed for this world's goods with 321 acres of choice Morgan county land. Mr. Coates raises a good many hogs and prefers the Jersey Red Durocs as he regards them hardier, better rustlers and generally safer to feed than any other kind. He has lost some by cholera but still takes little stock in vaccination and hardly thinks it pays. He doesn't yet think a sure remedy for hog cholera has been found.

As soon as his pigs are old enough to eat he supplies them with slop and puts oil meal in a self feeder where they can get at it themselves all right. He prefers to have his brood sows in sheds accommodating eight families or litters separated from each other. The sheds he places on different parts of the farm so as to get the benefit of the fertilizing and not have too many in one locality. However, cattle are his principal hold and he raises some and buys more. He has forty cows and lets the calves run with the mothers till six months old and then takes them away and at once goes to work feeding them shelled corn and clover hay. He generally gets them fat for baby beef by July when he lets them go before the flies begin to get troublesome. He buys some feeders sometimes in Chicago, sometimes in St. Louis and sometimes in Kansas City according as the market pleases him. In the fall he buys heavy stock and recently brought home a load weighing an average of 1070. In the spring he buys lighter weights and at all times in sows, calves and feeders he prefers the old reliable Short Horns.

Edward O. Green residing a few miles east of the city has seventy acres of corn, which he planted about the middle of May. He is somewhat troubled with wild pea vines in his fields and hence cultivates with two shovel cultivators generally three times a season. He expects to begin husking next week. He is fattening a bunch of hogs which are a cross between Poland-China and other breeds. His wheat was so badly down that he didn't try to harvest it but turned the hogs in on it and they are doing well. He had only ten acres so the hogs will soon get through with it and then will go on corn. To keep them well in shape he keeps salt and wood ashes where they can get it at all times. Clear water and good feed make best pork.

SUNDAY SCHOOL INSTITUTE IN EVERY PRECINCT PLANNED

Workers Held Conference Yesterday and Formulated Plans for Month of December.

At a conference of Sunday school workers held at the Chamber of Commerce rooms Thursday plans were formulated for the holding of a Sunday school institute in every precinct in the county. The institutes will be held some time in December, the time of holding depending largely on the convenience of a number of noted Sunday school workers whom it is expected will be present and take part in the programs. A second meeting will be held Saturday morning, Nov. 20, at 11:30 o'clock.

Those present at the meeting were: W. H. Crum of Literberry, Rev. S. M. Bedford, Waverly; Arthur Swain, Sinclair; Rev. C. G. Cantrall, Literberry; Miss Anna Laws, Waverly; Mrs. L. B. Spires, Franklin; J. C. Cunningham, Murrayville; Rev. W. E. Keenan, Franklin; Rev. Clyde Richardson, Orleans; Rev. Percy W. Stephens, Jacksonville; Carl Weber, Jacksonville; Eb Spink, Jacksonville; C. L. DePew, Jacksonville, Miss Katie Clarkson, Jacksonville.

Eb Spink was named chairman of the publicity committee, it being desired to keep the matter before the Sunday school workers of the county. It is not the intention to have these institutes in oppostiion to the annual county institute but they will be held in addition to it. It may be that a practical county institute will be held at the close of the series of precinct institutes.

QUAIL SEASON OPENED THURSDAY

The quail season in Illinois opened Thursday and will be in force 28 days. Owing to the shortness of the season and the diffculty in finding places to hunt, hunters each year show less interest in the shooting season. This has resulted in a falling off of the purchase of hunter's licenses over the sales of a few years ago.

Thursday afternoon County Clerk Boruff said that 300 licenses had been issued from his office. This is a marked decrease over a year ago, tho Mr. Boruff says that he expects that the final sale will equal that of 1914. The decrease in the issuance of hunting licenses is being commented upon thruout the entire state. The main reason given is that above and also the restrictions on duck shooting which came into effect thru the federal migratory bird law.

Owing to the weather conditions not as many hunters took advantage of the opening day in Morgan county as would have been the case had the day been clear and the roads good. However, a great many were out and soome report good shooting. The quail are not plentiful this year. This can be laid to the exetremely wet summer when undoubtedly hundreds of quails were drowned and probably many nests of eggs chilled. It was noted by some hunters who were out Thursday that many of the birds killed were young. It is probable that these birds were hatched out late in the summer.

COURSE OF TRUE LOVE AGAIN RUNS SMOOTH.

The course of true love again runs smooth for Eugene J. Dupree and Mrs. Sarah Alice Dupree. Mr. and Mrs. Dupree were united in marriage Thursday by Justice Dyer at his office in West State street. They were married several years ago, and divorced June 7, 1915. Mr. Dupree gives his residence as Beaumount, Texas and the bride gives her residence as Jacksonville. Since the divorce and for some time previous Mrs. Dupree and her child have resided with her mother, Mrs. Lucinda Winterbottom in West Court street. Mr. Dupree came to town several weeks ago and by his visit the reconciliation with his wife resulted. There is said to have been some trouble about the custody of the child of Mr. and Mrs. Dupree, it being alleged that Mrs. Winterbottom, the grandmother, refused to give it up. Mrs. Dupree, however, went to the house Thursday and got the child without any trouble.

WOMAN REFUSES OPERATION

Tells How She Was Saved by Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Logansport, Ind. — "My baby was over a year old and I bloated till I was a burden to myself. I suffered from female trouble so I could not stand on my feet and I felt like millions of needles were pricking me all over. At last my doctor told me that all that would save me was an operation, but this I refused. I told my husband to get me a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I would try it before I would submit to any operation. He did so and I improved right along. I am now doing all my work and feeling fine.

"I hope other suffering women will try your Compound. I will recommend it to all I know." — Mrs. DANIEL D. B. DAVIS, 110 Franklin St., Logansport, Ind.

Since we guarantee that all testimonials which we publish are genuine, is it not fair to suppose that if Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has the virtue to help these women it will help any other woman who is suffering in a like manner?

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., (confidential) Lynn, Mass. Your letter wil be opened, read and answered by a woman and held in strict confidence.

The New Baby is World's Wonder

Every tiny infant makes life's perspective wider and brighter. And whatever there is to enhance its arrival and to ease and comfort the expectant mother should be given attention. Among the real helpful things is an external abdominal application known as "Mother's Friend." There is scarcely a community but what has its enthusiastic admirer of this splendid embrocation. It is so well thought of by women who know that most drug stores throughout the United States carry "Mother's Friend" as one of their staple and reliable remedies. It is applied to the abdominal muscles to relieve the strain on ligaments and tendons.

Those who have used it refer to the ease and comfort experienced during the period of expectancy; they particularly refer to the absence of nausea, often so prevalent as a result of the natural expansion. In a little book are described more fully the many reasons why "Mother's Friend" has been a friend indeed to women for more than two generations. This book was prepared not only to aid the inexperienced but to enable so many women to have at hand the timely hints, suggestions and helps in concise and neatly printed form for ready reference. It should be in all homes. "Mother's Friend" may be had of almost any druggist but if you fail to find it write us direct and also write for book to Bradfield Regulator Co., 503 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga.

What is said herein of "Mother's Friend" is but a repetition of the thoughts expressed by thousands of happy mothers who have successfully used this splendid external application.

GIVES AUTHORIZED STATEMENT ON ZEPPELIN LONDON RAIDS

Mr. Jenkinson Sends Clipping From English Newspaper—People Present Surprisingly Calm Demeanor.

Percy Jenkinson has received from his father, Thomas Jenkinson, who returned to his home in England a year ago, a clipipng from an English newspaper giving an authorized account of Zeppelin raids on London. According to this statement, the residents of English cities and towns which have been subjected to raids have become so hardened to them that they keep constantly in "state of preparedness" and are not greatly alarmed when the raids occur. The statement says press dispatches about the raids have been considerably exaggerated. A portion of the clipping referred to follows:

The writer appointed by the home office to observe and describe the effect of the recent Zeppelin raid has prepared the following account of the damage done in the London area which is placed at the disposal of the Press:

On the evening of Wednesday, Oct. 13, another aerial attack was directed against London, which differed in no material respect from those made on previous occasions. The enemy's vessel or vessels flew high at an altitude chosen, no doubt, in order to prevent as far as possible the danger of damage or destruction from anti-aircraft guns. The darkening of the Metropolitan area together with the height at which the aircraft travelled, certainly prevented the enemy from discovering the exact position of places of importance.

As on the last occasion, the official report issued in Berlin proves the raiders to have been grossly in error, in most cases, as to where they were dropping their bombs, as if we can suppose that they had really some definite objective other than the mere haphazard destruction of the lives and property of non-combatants, then, owing to the height, at which they flew, they entirely failed to attain that objective. Except for one chance shot, the damage was exclusively on property unconnected with the conduct of the war. Of the 127 persons killed or injured none save one or two soldiers who were in the street at the time were combatants.

As for the moral effect, for which presumably the enemy is seeking, that was all to his disadvantage. The raid occurred at an hour when practically no one except children were abed, and though shops in the principal areas were closed, places of entertainment were full, and the masses of the population were about their ordinary evening's pleasure or business. A very much larger number of people, therefore, were aware of the enemy's presence than had been on previous occasions, but the population of London, though hundreds of thousands heard the sounds of bursting bombs, and the guns, remained cool and free from panic. There was, if possible, even less sign of excitement than on the previous occasions. Official warnings to take shelter were better observed, and when the aircraft had passed and the guns had ceased firing, most of the people who had ben watching the bombardment went quietly to bed and were undisturbed by the second raid, which took place about midnight in another part of the London area. In the theatres, from which the sounds of firing and of explosions could plainly be heard, there was a commendable absence of panic. Altogether the imperturability of the people of London would appear to offer a striking contrast to the behavior of the population on occasions of rehearsals of aircraft attacks recently said to have been held in certain German towns.

When the results of the raid were examined next morning, five distinct areas could be distinguished in which damage had been done. The first of these is an area in which there is little or no residential property, some large buildings devoted to various kinds of business, and comparatively wide streets. In this area bombs were dropped containing high explosives, which in four cases fell upon the street, and in the fifth upon the back premises of one large building thronged with people. One of the bombs, which was apparently of large size, penetrated the street into subways containing gas and water mains, and in exploding melted the gas pipes, setting alight a fire which, tho slight in extent lasted for several hours. It was also responsible for a number of casualties which will be the subject of inquests. Those who were killed were either sitting in the front rooms of buildings, or working or walking in the streets.

The second area contains large blocks of residential flats, some of which were occupied as offices. One zomb fell on the top of one of the buildings, demolishing the top story. In this area there were no casualties tho several narrow escapes. One elderly gentleman who was in the ground floor rooms when the bombs exploded, and who was knocked over by the force of the explosion, picked himself up, and made his way up the broken staircase to his bedroom on the floor above, and immediately went to bed in spite of the fact that the glass in the windows and the shutters behind them in his bedroom had been shattered by the force of the explosion.

The third area contains two damaged business premises, the first of them a large and modern building constructed of reinforced concrete, and with a steel and concrete roof and flooring. Two bombs dropped in this building, one of them actually on the roof and one on the pavement immediately beneath the doorway.

The fourth district in which damage was done is one consisting entirely of what may be called working-class property, with small, low buildings, some of them used to house small shops, or business, but in most cases occupied, and in many cases overcrowded—by private residents of the poorer classes. In this area more bombs were dropped than in those previously described, and the damage done was exclusively suffered by privade traders or householders, who behaved with the utmost heroism and coolness, and who suffered damage, and in some cases loss of life, with no compensating military value for the enemy whatever.

In the last area covered by the raid, this time in a suburb, there is not a single factory or business and hardly any shops. There are no military encampments, no store sheds, no aerial defences, and not even searchlights. All the property consists of detached or semi-detached houses, surrounded by small gardens. It was in this district, that for some obscure reason, the largest number of bombs were dropped, and they must have been launched by what the commander of the Zeppelin in his interview on the last raid described "rapid fire." The actual period of bombardment did not last a minute, and the distance from the spot where the first bomb dropped to the last could not have been more than 600 yards. Within 60 yards no fewer than five fell together, while near by three fell in a single garden, which did not measure more than 30 yards square. A striking and fortunate feature of the bombardment in this district, and indeed of the whole attack on this occasion, is the number of cases in which the bombs dropped, not on buildings, but on the ground.

In one house a litle boy lying in his cot was buried under the debris of the wrecked roof of the house, and in order to release him the whole roof had to be lifted up, so securely was the cot pinned down. There was not a stick of furniture nor a piece of china left whole in either of these two houses. Only two small pictures remained with theg lass unbroken. A large house a few yards away suffered very badly. The bomb fell right on the centre of it, killing instantly two children, and severely injuring a third child, and the father and mother. In the road in which this occured, 20 houses are without doors or windows, and every house is heavily pitted with shot marks. In one of the houses, where a woman was sitting on a sofa, the door of the room was forced open with such violence that the lock was wrenched from its fastenings and struck the wall within a few inches of the woman's head. At another point, where a bomb fell in a street, a young man was saying good night to a woman at the front door of a house. He was immediately killed by a fragment of the bomb, and the woman was severely injured. At this point also, an old man who was walking on the pavement had his arm blown off, and died in the hospital shortly afterwards.

"WORK NO SNAP" SAYS WALSH

Well Known Traveling Man Makes Statement About His Relief.

PRAISES TANLAC.

Among the many statements which are daily being made in regard to Tanlac, and the merits of this new preparation, which is now being introduced in Jacksonville, none is more interesting than that of W. J. Walsh, Jr., who is traveling representative in several of the central states for the J. B. William Co. of Glastonbury, Conn., who manufactures the popular toilet articles of that name. Mr. Walsh has headquarters at 501 Victoria building, St. Louis, Mo., and is well known among the trade in this territory. In regard to his recent improvement in health he said:

"This road work is no snap when it comes to eating and sleeping. It has certainly ruined my stomach and I don't know how sick I would have been if I had not taken Tanlac. Before I heard of this medicine, or rather before I began taking it, my whole system was out of order. I felt tired and worn out all the time and I could not sleep at night. My digestion was poor and I was almost always constipated. As soon as I would eat anything in the way of a big meal my stomach would fill with gas and I would be most uncomfortable for some time afterwards. My mind was dull and my memory poor. In this rundown condition I contracted cold easily and though I tried a number of remedies nothing seemed to help me.

"I was passing through a town in Kentucky about two weeks ago and saw this Tanlac advertised. I got a bottle and began taking it. I am glad I did for Tanlac has proven a wonderful remedy in my case. My ambition has returned as well as my strength and energy. I now sleep all night and get up in the morning feeling cheerful and ready for work. I have a fine appetite and relish everything I eat. I am a well man and I hope Tanlac will do as much for others as it has for me."

Tanlac, the "Master Medicine," is now being sold in Jacksonville at the drug store of Coover & Shreve. —Advertisement.

SCHOOLHOUSE SANITATION

Forty States of the Union have taken some legal action toward safeguarding the sanitation of public-school buildings according to a bulletin on "Schoolhouse Sanitation," just issued by the Bureau of Education of the U. S. Department of the Interior.

"Probably nine-tenths of the existing regulation of this sort has come within the past decade," declared the bulletin. "Each State profits by the experience of 47 others. A law passed in one extreme of the country to-day is copied next month or next year by a State 2,000 or 3,000 miles distant."

Thirty-eight States have some legal provision regarding the school site according to the bulletin. Nearly all of these provisions are Statewide in their application, and are mandatory in character. These provisions include the proximity of "nuisances," availability of the site, and size of the site. Nineteen States have laws prohibiting the location of school buildings within a specified distance from places where liquor is sold, from gambling houses, houses of prostitution, and noisy or smoky factories.

Thirty of the States have sought to regulate the water supply of the public school. "The revolt against the common drinking cup," says the bulletin, "has come within the past five years. Kansas was the pioneer, but other States followed rapidly, so that now half of the entire number have either a law or a regulation regarding drinking cups."

Some form of protection against fire and panic is found in 36 States. Blanket regulations, or the power to make such regulations, exist in 12 States. General or special construction with a view to fire prevention is dealt with in 10 states. Thirteen of the States have something to say as to corridors and inner stairways; 24 have regulations as to exits, and 25 as to exterior escapes; 10 mention alarm and fire-fighting apparatus; and 11 States, according to the bulletin, have any legal word on ventilation. Thirty cubic feet of fresh air per pupil per minute is the conventional amount specified.

I nthe matter of cleaning and disinfecting, slightly more than one-fourth of the States have regulations which control conditions to any degree outside the districts themselves. Some of the laws and regulations are almost model; others are wholly inadequate. A few State boards of health have done notable work in this particular. Special cleaning and disinfecting follow in seven States immediately upon discovery in any school of any of a certain class of diseases. "Three of the States have a special list of specific diseases that call at once for action. This list includes scarlet fever, smallpox, and diphtheria in all three states, measels in two, and infantile paralysis, epidemic, spinal-meningitis and bubonic plague in one each."

RELIEVES THE WORST CASE OF CATARRH

Think "Hyomei the Most Wonderful Treatment for Catarrh Ever Discovered."

Do not try to cure catarrh by using sprays or lotions; it cannot be cured in that manner. The only way in which this too common disease can be fully relieved is through a direct application to the affected parts that will kill the bacilli of catarrh and prevent their growth.

Breathing the air of Hyomei is the only known method of treatment that can really accomplish this. It is the simplest, most pleasant and probably the most reliable treatment for catarrh that has even been discovered.

Numerous unsolicited testimonials have been received from prominent men and women who have been helped by this remarkable remedy. Ministers, bankers, lawyers, even eminent physicians have given strong testimony as to the powers of Hyomei.

The complete Hyomei outfit is inexpensive and consists of an inhaler, dropper and sufficient Hyomei to last several weeks. This will effect instant relief in ordinary cases, but for chronic and deep-seated cases of catarrh, longer use may be necessary, and then an extra bottle of Hyomei can be obtained for a trifling sum. It is not alone the best (it might be called the only) method of treating catarrh, but it is also the most economical.

Coover & Shreve have so much confidence in the power of Hyomei to relieve catarrh, that they will for a limited time, sell this medicine under their personal guarantee to refund the money if the purchaser can say that it did not benefit.—Ad71.

PLACE FIRE LOSS AT MILLION.

South Bethlehem, Pa., Nov. 10.—No official statement as to the loss caused by the fire which today practically destroyed the No. 4 machine shop of the Bethlehem Steel company here today, had been given out up to a late hour tonight.

Unofficial estimates placed the damage at between $1,000,000 and $4,000,000 with many persons who viewed the damage expressing the opinion that even the latter amount was too small.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Taylor, Mrs. Helen Jordan and Miss Upham went to Springfield last night in Mr. Taylor's car to attend the Kreisler concert.

The Easiest Way To End Dandruff

There is one sure way that never fails to remove dandruff completely and that is to dissolve it. This destroys it entirely. To do this, just get about four ounces of plain, ordinary liquid arvon; apply it at night when retiring; use enough to moisten the scalp and rub it in gently with the finger tips.

By morning most, if not all, of your dandruff will be gone, and three or four more applications will completely dissolve and entirely destroy, every single sign and trace of it, no matter how much dandruff you may have.

You will find, too, that all itching and digging of the scalp will stop instantly, and your hair will be fluffy, lustrous, glossy, silky and soft, and look and feel a hundred times better.

You can get liquid arvon at any drug store. It is inexpensive, and four ounces is all you will need. This simple remedy has never been known to fail.

WORLD'S MARKET NEWS

WHEAT UNDERGOES SETBACK WHEN EARLY BUYERS BEGIN TO UNLOAD

Estimates That Canadian Farms Have Four Times More Wheat for Export Than Was Case a Year Ago Lead to Weak Finish.

Chicago, Nov. 11.—Estimates that Canadian farmers have four times more wheat for export than was the case a year ago led to a weak finish in the wheat market today notwithstanding that prices during most of the session had shown decided strength. The close varied from 1-8@1-4c off to a like advance, as compared with last night. Corn lost 1-2c to 5-8c net and oats, 1-8@1-4c.

In provisions the outcome ranged from 2½c decline to a rise of 17½c.

Wheat prices reached the highest point of the day when word came that according to reports of the northwestern grain dealers' association, the amount of wheat still in the hands of Canadian producers was 121,203,000 bushels as against 30,127,00 bushels at the corresponding time last year. After this news was made public, the early buyers began to unload and a drop resulted.

Unfavorable weather and higher Liverpool quotations were largely responsible for the strength displayed by wheat the greater part of the session. Talk of an acute shortage of flour in the east was also a bullish influence, but was offset to a considerable extent by assertions that immediate steps would be taken at Ottawa, Ontario, to eliminate the Canadian export duty on wheat.

Corn weakened as a result of prospects of clear cold weather.

Oats sagged a little with corn. Export demandfi however, prevented any material decline.

Provisions were inclined to be weak.

INVESTMENT ISSUES INCLINED TO WAVER ON REALIZING SALES

Specialties Are Again Under the Influence of Manipulation at Further Sensational Advances.

New York, Nov. 11.—The tendency of today's market was doubtless disappointing to the conservative interests which welcomed yesterday's general rise in standard shares. Investment issues were inclined to waver on realinzing sales, while specialties, particularly automobile stocks were again under the influence of manipulation at further sensational advances.

Conspicuous among these descriptions were general motors, which made an extreme gain of 25 to the new high price of 400; Willys-Overland up 23 to 235 and the Maxwell group, wherein gains of 2 to 5 points were registered. Other issues of the same class, notably Studebaker, Baldwin Locomotive, Lackawanna Steel, Crucible Steel, New York Airbrake, Continental Can, and American Can, rose 3 to 6 points.

United States and the metal stocks constituted the other features of strength, coppers coming forward with a rush in the final hour on an advance of 18½ cents in the price of the refined metal.

Bethelehem Steel continued to reflect its feverish course of the previous day, rising five to 435 at the opening, yielding to 412½ and closing at its opening price.

Foreign exchange was visibly strengthened by the New Commercial credit established between this center and London, but Paris checks were a trifle easier.

Mercantile marine 4½'s were the conspicuous feature of the bond division, that issue rising 4¾ points to 94¾ on extensive "future" sales. Total sales par value were $7,230,000. The United States bonds were unchanged on call.

ASHLAND AND TALLULA ENROLLED TO PROMOTE "THE BETTER WAY"

Spirited Meeting Thursday Afternoon at Ashland Marks Completion of Sixty Miles of New Trail.

Ashland and Tallula were enrolled in the ranks of "The Better Way" boosters at an enthusiastic meeting Thursday afternoon in the Ashland opera house. The movement for the better way, which had its inception several weeks since in Franklin, has met with a reception more and more favorable as the work of organization has been pushed northward. The promoters of the road have organized as the St. Louis and Peoria Highway association and as their object they have set upon the securing of an oiled highway from St. Louis to Peoria by the spring of 1916. The trail was recently marked from Prentice to Rockbridge and Thursday marking was extended to Ashland. From sixty to sixty-five miles has been marked to date and it is the plan of the men behind the project to continue the work steadily.

A short vaudeville performance was given the delegates by courtesy of the Ashland road men just before the beginning of the meeting.

J. H. Hubbs of Prentice was selected temporary chairman of the Thursday meeting and J. E. Edwards of Ashland, secretary. W. F. McLaughlin was elected director for Ashland and F. C. Walbaum for Cass county. H. E. Boeker was selected to represent Menard county and W. C. Tenery, the town of Tallula. A meeting is planned for next week in Petersburg and it is planned to continue organization until the "orange and red" extends through Greenview, San Jose and Pekin to Peoria. From Franklin the highway will go to Scottville, through Fayette and Rockbridge.

Ashland has agreed to mark the trail and oil the roads within its jurisdiction and Tallula will do the same. One mile from each town it is planned to have a sign post, with distances from places each way on the trail clearly marked and to establish similar guide posts at each cross road. With these signs and the 18-inch painted band on each telephone post "The Better Way" will easily be what its founders claim for it, "The best marked trail in the country".

IDEALS IN SPORT.

Under the heading, "Football Tragedy at Knox an Added Inspiration to High Ideals in Sport," the Knox News Bulletin, written by members of the journalism class, contains the following editorial:

"It is a different Knox athlete, who shakes hands with a basket ball opponent, who dusts with his cap the home plate of another college diamond, who matches strength against rivals on the cinder track—since the death of Bryan Scott of the junior class, for there is a new spirit since that fatal game at St. Louis University on October 16th, when Halfback Scott lost his life.

"Knox has always played to win—to win fair. Knox has always been honorable opponent and one that rivals recognized as hard to excel in sportmanship. But the sacrifice of Scott's life in football has brought a new power to Knox's athletic policy and new strength to carry it out—not to use men to promote athletics but athletics to develop men.

"There are to be no more football games at Knox this year. Faculty and students are agreed that there is no heart for the sport this fall since Scott's death. It is too fresh a memory now.

"Mr. and Mrs. Frank Scott of Galesburg, the athlete's parents, appreciate this attitude on the part of the college altho they make it clear that they do not wish Knox to give up football permanently. 'The athletic training which Bryan received at Knox made him the clean, manly boy that he was,' the father said. 'Knox and America need sports like football, for they make strong men.'"

ASSESSMENT FOR WILLOW CREEK DISTRICT ALLOWED

Judge Thomson Grants Petition for Expenditure of $11,000—District Includes 4000 Acres.

In the Morgan county court Thursday Judge Thomson granted the petion of the commissioners of the Willow Creek drainage district asking for an assessment of $11,000 for betterments in the district. The Willow Creek district is in the vicinity of Meredosia and was the first one to be organiezd in Morgan county. The petition to organize it was filed in 1892 and the preliminary work was done by the late Oscar DeLeuw. Thomas Worthington completed this work and has been the attorney for the commissioners ever since. In the proceedings asking for the special assessment of $11,000, the commissioners, C. H. Kappel, Eli Harschman and Arthur Hinners, have been represented by Worthington, Reeve & Green, and the property owners who object to the assessment are represented by L. O. Vaught and John M. Butler.

Willow Creek empties into Meredosia bay at a point about three miles north of Meredosia and the district adjacent to the stream comprises about 4.000 acres of land. The initial cost of construction was approximately $11,000 and about fifteen years ago an additional $10,000 was spent. The comissioners determined sometime ago, after making series of surveys, that $11,000 was necessary now for dredging the ditch and for building up the embankment at a number of points . The long period of high water this season resulted in filling up the channel to some extent and it had previously been recognized that some repair and improvement work was greatly needed in the district. The case has been in progress for two days and it was Thursday afternoon when Judge Thomson gave his decision granting the petition of the commissioners.

EAT WITHOUT FEAR OF INDIGESTION OR SOUR, ACID STOMACH

Instant Relief! "Pape's Diapepsin" Ends Your Stomach Trouble Forever.

Wonder what upset your stomach—which portion of the food did the damage—do you? Well, don't bother. If your stomach is in a revolt; if sour, gasy and upset, and what you just ate has fermented into stubborn lumps; head dizzy and aches; belch gases and acids and eructate undigested food; breath foul, tongue coated—just take a little Pape's Diapepsin and in five minutes you wonder what became of the indigestion and distress.

Millions of men and women today know that it is needless to have a bad stomach. A little Diapepsin occasionally keeps this delicate organ regulated and they eat their favorite foods without fear.

If your stomach doesn't take care of your liberal limit without rebellion; if your food is a damage instead of a help, remember the quickest, surest, most harmless relief is Pape's Diapepsin which costs only fifty cents for a large case at drug stores. It's truly wonderful—it digests food and sets things straight, so gently and easily that it is really astonishing. Please, for your sake, don't go on and on with a weak, disordered stomach; it's so unnecessary.—Adv.

HAIR TONIC NOT A MEDICINE, SAYS U. S.

New York, Nov. 11.—Hair tonic cannot be regarded as a "medicinal preparation" according to a decisio rendered here by the Board of General Appraisers who settle tariff squabbles. Washington, Nov. 11—Resolutions adopted recently at the International Peace Congress at San Francisco will be presented to President Wilson tomorrow by Dr. David Starr Jordan. The resolutions urge that a conference of neutrals be called to attempt to end the European war.

COUGHED CONTINUALLY

Day and Night—Man Says Nothing Helped But Vinol.

That statement does not surprise us. We have told the people of Jacksonville many times during the last ten years that Vinol is the greatest remedy for chronic coughs and colds that we ever sold. Mr. Dunning says:

"I took a heavy cold which settled into a chronic cough. It seemed as though I coughed continually day and night, so I could not sleep. I was all run-down and so weak I could hardly keep about. I tried different cough medicines but seemed to get worse instead of better. I went to the drug store and got a bottle of Vinol. Before it was half gone I was better and its continued used cured my cough, built me up and I am feeling fine." Benj. Dunning, 208 Tenth Ave., Scranton, Pa.

Vinol is not a palliative like cough syrup, but it is a constitutional remedy for coughs, colds and bronchitis, which removes the cause and stops the cough, and the recovery of Mr. Dunning was due to the healing medicinal extractives of fresh cods' livers without oil, aided by the strengthening, revitalizing effect of tonic iron and beef peptone which are contained in Vinol.—Lee P. Allcott, Druggist, Jacksonville, Illinois.—Adv.

A CHILD HATES OIL, CALOMEL, PILLS FOR LIVER AND BOWELS

Give "California Syrup of Figs" if Cross, Sick, Feverish, Constipated.

Look back at your childhood days. Remember the 'dose" mother insisted on—castor oil, calomel, cathartics. How you hated them, how you fought against taking them.

With our children it's different. Mothers who cling to the old form of physic simply don't realize what they do. The children's revolt is well-founded. Their tender little "insides" are injured by them.

If your child's stomach, liver and bowels need cleansing, give only delicious "California Syrup of Figs". Its action is positive, but gentle. Millions of mothers keep this harmless "fruit laxative" handy; they know children love to take it; that it never fails to clean the liver and bowels and sweeten the stomach, and that a teaspoonful given today saves a sick child tomorrow.

Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs" which has full directions for babies, children of all ages and for grown-ups plainly on each bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here. See that it is made by "California Fig Syrup Company". Refuse any other kind with contempt.—Adv.

AUTO ACCIDENT CAUSE OF CIRCUIT COURT SUIT

Father of Norma Smart Injured by J. S. Self's Car Seeks Heavy Damages—Child Was Run Over in Roadway Near Beardstown.

In the circuit court Judge Jones is hearing the evidence in the case of Norma Grant, by her father, John Grant, against J. Spencer Self. The complainant is represented by William N. Hairgrove of this city and W. H. Dietrich of Beardstown, and Mr. Self's attorneys are Bellatti, Bellatti & Moriarty. The sum of $25,000 damages is being asked because of an automobile accident which happened about six miles from Beardstown in the afternoon of Nov. 2, 1914, when Norma Grant, a girl about 12 years old, was run over by Mr. Self's automobile, with his son, Marion Self, at the steering wheel. Others in the car were Frank Arthur, D. F. Coffman and W. H. Naylor.

It seems that the party left Jacksonville about 9 o'clock on the morning of the 2nd and arrived at Beardstown shortly after 10. Returning they left Beardstown between 3 and 4 o'clock and it was on what is known as the Arenzville road that the accident happened. According to the declaration in the case, the little girl had bones in both thighs broken and received various injuries to the spine and to other parts of her body. It is claimed that one leg was permanently injured and will always be shorter than the other. Also it is maintained that the child suffered injuries to her nervous system from which she will not recover.

Members of the party who were on the stand yesterday testified that they were driving about fifteen miles an hour when the accident happened. They said that the girl was with other children at the side of the road and that when the car was within thirty feet of her that she darted across and before the man at the wheel could stop, the accident had happened. She was picked up by Mr. Self and Mr. Arthur, placed in the aufomoile and hurried to Beardstown for medical attendance.

The efforts of the attorneys for the complainant in cross-examining the witnesses yesterday were to show that members of the automobile party had been at Beardstown saloons. They admitted visiting two or three during the day, but testified that they had nothing to drink but beer and grape juice, and that they did not see Marion Self drink at all. The evidence showed further that after leaving Beardstown they stopped near the cemetery on the outskirts of the city for a lunch which they had with them, and there consumed several bottles of beer. Mr. Coffman said he did not remember any beer being drunk at this time, but Mr. Arthur testified that there had been.

The jury which is hearing the case includes G. M. Seymour, Franklin; Grant Gaines, Literberry; W. H. Coultas, Lynnville; J. W. Gibson, Murrayville; S. A. Bull, Nortonville; W. O. Givens, Waverly; R. N. Megginson, Woodson; William Riggs, Asa Robinson, George Rodrigues, J. B. Jordan and J. H. Mallen, Jacksonville.

Today Judge Jones will hear argument on the petition filed by H. P. Samuell as attorney for Mrs. Kate Haxton. He is asking that his client be released from jail on the ground that she is a poor person and unable to pay the fine assessed against her. The defendant's sentence for bootlegging has been served out and she is now laying out the fine and costs.

Law Cases.

In the suit filed by John Lyman as administrator against Norbury Sanatorium company, an order of dismissal was entered in accordance with the stipulation on file. A similar order was made in the case of John Lyman as administrator against E. L. Crouch, doing business as Maplewood sanatorium.

In the divorce proceedings brought by Mrs. Vinie Sweeney against her husband, Thomas Sweeney, the court entered an order of divorce on hearing evidence in support of the charge of cruelty made by the complainant.

In the divorce procedings of Mrs. Liona Wunderlick against her husband, J. F. Wunderlick, the case was called and the order of default entered against the defendant, who did not appear.

The divorce proceedings brought by Mrs. Laura P. Christopher against her husband, Edward J. Christopher, was granted on statutory charges and Mrs. Christopher was allowed to resume her maiden name of Laura P. Gilpin. The defendant has been in the employ of the C. B. & Q. as an operator.

ILLINOIS PLAYS LINCOLN SATURDAY

GAME WILL BE STAGED ON THE LINCOLN PASTURE.

Coach Harmon Wil Take Two Teams Via Automobile if Weather Permits—Peoria High Comes for a Game Against Jacksonville Saturday Afternoon.

Local interest in football centers about the two home teams which will play Saturday. Coach Harmon will take his men to Lincoln to play Lincoln College and Coach Huber will have his colts romping up and down the field with the Peoria High lads on Illinois gridiron. Jacksonville high has had bad sledding all season, most of the men on the team playing their first year at the pastime. They scarcely hope to win from the strong Peoria eleven, yet they expect to make things interesting for the visitors, who appear to be rather chesty over their prowess and its up to the J. H. S. men to get busy and put up a snappy game. The local lads are certainly gritty and have lots of fight and it would be a feather in their cap if they could win from the Peoria lads. Peoria intends to bring down several second string men.

Will Go Via Autos.

If the weather permits, Coach Harmon will take his men to Lincoln Saturday morning in automobiles. At present it is his intention to take over the first and second teams and will probably have an opportunity to use most of the players. This is the last game at home for Lincoln and there ought to be a big bunch of the faithful at Lincoln out to see the "Little Sixteen" champions in action.

Illinois' victory over Millikin last Saturday had the tendency to lessen the interest early in the season in the conference. As a rule it takes a Thanksgiving day game to decide the title. Interest, however, centers about the game Saturday between Wesleyan and Millikin at Decatur and the conflict between Bradley and Lombard. Eureka plays William and Vashti at Aledo this week. Considerable gossip has gone the rounds of the game between Monmouth and Illinois. Monmouth was sent a challenge by Coach Harmon but as yet they have taken no definite action in the matter. Illinois after the Lincoln game will meet Carthage here Nov. 20. If these two games are won, Illinois will have the clearest title to championship honor of any team in the conference for a great many years.

FUNERALS

Hampton.

The funeral of the late John Hampton was held from the M. E. church in Merritt Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock, in charge of the Rev. Mr. Hadaway of Chapin. Music was furnished by a quartet composed of Mr. and Mrs. Al Morris, Mrs. Waterfield and Norman Campbell. The flowers were cared for by Misses Helen Eyres, Elsie Owing, Pearl Barfield and Freida Lakamp. Interment was in Lewis cemetery and the bearers were: Fred Lakamp, Edward Lakamp, Walter Boddy and Howard Morris.

DAMAGED BY FIRE.

The fire department was called out Thursday afternoon to the home of Lee Biggs, at 441 South Clay avenue. The summer kitchen there was found to be on fire, probably caused by a spark from the chimney. This small building was considerably damaged and the weatherboarding on the house was scorched, but the firemen extinguished the flames before any great property loss had occurred. The house is owned by Mrs. Pechloeffel.

FOR THE CHRONIC EXCUSE MAKER THERE IS NO HOPE, SAYS PASTOR

Story of the Rich Man's Feast in Gospel of St. Luke Is Text of Strong Sermon by the Rev. John L. Brandt.

"The man who continually makes excuses against entering and assuming the responsibilities of the Christian life will in the last day find himself excused from Heaven and its glory. He will be excused to go away from the presence of the Lord and be lost," said the Rev. John L. Brandt, speaking Thursday night at the revival meeting series of Central Christian church to a good sized and interested audience. "Popular Excuses" was the subject and the story of the rich man who announced a feast and going to his friends met with refusal from each, Luke 14, 15-24, was the text of a strong discourse.

Views of the mission work at Nanking will be the subject of the illustrated talk after the regular revival service this evening. Miss Cora Graham will sing an illustrated song, "The Ninety and Nine." "Home and Mother" will be the sermon subject at this concluding service in the second week of the three-week series.

There were present last night two visiting pastors, both of whom led in prayer, the Rev. C. W. Freeman of Greenview and the Rev. G. E. Prewitt of Winchester.

The friends who refused the invitation of the rich men to the feast did not have excuses at all valid, according to the words of Rev. Mr. Brandt. Any modern business man would have looked over the ground before he made a purchase and have tried out the team before he bought it. As for the plea of him who "had married a wife," there is little excuse for the man who marries a woman who will not go with him to church. To the man who rejects Christ because he is waiting for friends the minister said, "Your friend will not die when you die. You need not wait until your friends are ready to come to Christ."

The hypocrite we have with us always. Not only is he found in the church but in the lodge and everywhere one goes. It is not for the new member of the church to follow the hypocrite, but to follow after Christ. Some there are who seem to await a peculiar sensation or strange vision. "To such I would say. This is an excuse of the devil. Know God's plan of salvation and follow it."

"The way of the Lord is one of blessedness. The way of the transgressor is hard. Some say they are not good enough to follow Christ. Go as you are for the Lord will in some way cleanse. Christ has promised to be with you always, even to the end of the world. The man who intends to 'come later on' is following the devil's methods to keep men away from Christ. Far too many are they who wait and say 'there is time enough yet, a little more pleasure, a little more leisure, a little more business and time to pursue the things of the world.'"

INJUNCTION WILL NOT PREVENT SCHOOL TAX COLLECTION

New Berlin and Island Grove Townships to Build New $5000 High School.

The trustees of New Berlin and Island Grove townships, Sangamon county, will not be prevented by injunction from certifying a levy of $5,000, and collecting taxes in connection with a new township high school as Judge Burton denied the petition for an injunction prayed by H. H. Boston, T. A. Shuff and J. T. Burns. A demurrer to the injunction was sustained by the court.

There is also quo warranto suit against President J. C. McMillan and other members of the board to ascertain if they are legally holding their offices. That is to be tried later.

ILLINOIS THREATENED WITH EPIDEMIC OF DIPHTHERIA

Disease Breaks Out Simultaneously All Over the State—Antitoxin Being Used Freely.

Illinois is threatened with one of the worst epidemics of diphtheria in the history of the state, Dr. C. St. Clair Drake, secretary of the state board of health declared yesterday. The disease has sprung up simultaneously in every section and in spite of added precautions which health and school authorities are taking, it is feared that it will become epidemic.

"It is one of the waves that hits the state every three or four years," Dr. Drake said. "The disease comes in waves. An epidemic kills the susceptibles and it is three or four years until another crop reaches the right stage. Three years ago the state had one of its worst epidemics. There was a belt across the central portion of the state where hundreds were stricken with the disease.

"There is no explanation for the sudden outbreak this year, except that of contact. It doesn't appear to be confined to any one locality. It is everywhere in the state.

"Keeping it from becoming epidemic in any section of the state will be the big task of the state board.

Rules to Follow.

Here are the rules Dr. Drake says communities must live up to if they wish to escape a diphtheria epidemic:

Quarantine must be rigidly enforced.

No case of diphtheria should be declared cured until examination of the membrane of the throat has been made.

All children exposed to the disease should be "cultured."

The use of anti-toxin as a preventative should be general.

Schick should be used to ascertain which members of the family are immune and which are subject to the disease.

Schnick, Dr. Drake explained, is a reaction newly discovered by which it is possible to determine whether or not one is subject to diphtheria. It prevents the use of anti-toxin except in cases where it is really needed.

"It is better to have the children in school where they can be examined and watched for signs of the disease than to have them at large where they may become afflicted and spread the disease before it is discovered," Dr. Drake said. "The policy of the board is not to close the schools except for the purpose of disinfection, etc. When local authorities insist upon the closing of schools the board issues a supplementary order requiring all children under 16 to remain on their own premises."

Preparedness Good Service

¶The average person, perhaps, is not aware of the scarcity of desirable merchandise in the clothing markets at the present time.

¶Large war contracts placed with cloth manufacturers have curtailed the supply for home demand. This, together with the scarcity of imported Fast Dye Stuffs, has created a situation such as has not been experienced before in years.

¶That such a condition was inevitable has been known for several months by us, and being large consumers of merchandise we were protected in our early purchases thru our large buying connections.

¶You will find here now very desirable merchandise, at prices not equalled elsewhere.
